Dear Mr. Ali Hyder:

The lawyer I appointed in Hong Kong to precede my patent registration, but the cooperation was terminated due to my poor financial situation cannot allow me to pay all the expenses. I received your first letter on 1st June 2005 and realize that every thing is urgent; I must reply you immediately, I try to contact you by fax, but I did not receive any reply nor did I have your address. Until 22nd July 2005, I got your cover sheet and your address, and that is the reason why I wrote you so late, I am really sorry for that. I hope that you can help me to extent the time limit, and let me have the time need to amend my claim; I will never abandon my claim of my patent.

My lawyer fails on his duty, because my claims had divided into two parts. The first part is the most important part, which is the idea of piston engine cylinders that will share one combustion chamber. I believe this concept is innovating and work which will create many advantages for the pistons engine. The second part is about the construct of the output device. My lawyer requests almost all the claims for the second part that is the output device for me, and that is not my original purpose. Now I hope Dear Mr. Ali Hyder can help me out and inform me how to made amendment to correct the right of my claims of my patent, if necessary, I can give you all my original document of the concept of my design. The original document is in Chinese, and I can translate it into English for you. I hope that I can get your reply as soon as possible. For any further communications, you may contact me at my address as followed.
